

SENATE IS CLOSE.

The Populists Will Have the Balance of Power.

The Republicans Have 41 and the Democrats 40.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

Republicans Claim They Will Have a Majority of 99.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Reports received up to 9 o'clock last night indicate the next senate will have forty Democrats, forty-one Republicans and six Populists, while the attitude of the successor to Senator Harris of Tennessee is still in doubt. In this classification Senators Stewart and Jones of Nevada, who were elected by the Republicans but have announced their separation from that party, and Governor Tillman who will doubtless be elected by the so-called independent Democrats of the South Carolina legislature, are placed in the Populist column. Tillman will probably vote with the Democrats on organization, and Stewart and Jones of Nevada and Foster with the Republicans. This would throw the balance of power into the hands of the Populists. The senate by states is as follows:

State	Dem	Rep	Pop	Total

THE NEXT HOUSE.

Republicans Claim They Will Have Ninety-Nine Majority.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—When Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee left the Republican headquarters last night he said the reports received during the day gave the Republicans 230 out of 350 members of the house, beyond which number the majority would be reached. He said there was a possibility of securing twenty-seven additional members.

Mr. Babcock also stated that his information leads him to believe there is a possibility of securing three more members from Alabama, two from Illinois, one from Kansas, one from Kentucky, Nebraska and South Carolina each; three more from Minnesota, two from Ohio, two from Pennsylvania, three from Missouri, one from Arkansas, three from Louisiana and three from Texas. If these claims are realized it will give the Republicans 237 members, or a majority of ninety-nine members.

According to the claims of the Republicans they will be able to secure the votes of at least thirty of the forty-four states in case the next presidential election is thrown into the house, as they will have either the solid delegations or a majority in each of the delegations from that number of states.

SPRINGER EXPLAINS.

The Congressman Gives the Reasons for His Retirement.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Congressman William Springer wires the Associated Press as follows:

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—Your request for my opinion on result of the election in Illinois and the country received. There were many causes which contributed to the defeat of the Democratic party. The dissatisfaction among Democrats caused by the delay in passing a tariff bill and the alleged imperfections in that measure had in a measure closed when the election occurred. Intelligent members of the party were satisfied that every possible effort would have been put forth to secure prompt action. The hard times of one year ago, which had been attributed by Republicans to the tariff bill, had caused legislation, caused a feeling of doubt in the minds of many as to the wisdom of the Democratic tariff policy. The unemployed sought a change without stopping to inquire whether such a change would really benefit them or not. The tariff makers of this country who had been receiving large benefits from a protective tariff were not supposed to give up any of the privileges which they had enjoyed heretofore. They naturally resented any efforts to curtail their rights to the tariff makers for their own benefit. The business interests of the country were appealed to by Republican partisans to make large contributions to their campaign funds.

There were many evidences in this part of Illinois to prove that such appeals were not made in vain. The Republican managers in this congressional district were supplied more liberally with campaign funds than ever before known in this state.

Never before were Republican politicians so active and persistent in party affairs as during the campaign in this district. The managers of the Democratic party were active and aggressive. They never made a more gallant fight, but we were defeated. The stay-at-home vote among the Democrats was very large, so large in some localities, as to raise the suspicion the voters had been paid to remain away from the polls.

The tidal wave of Democratic prosperity which set in immediately after the passage of the Democratic tariff bill was attributed by Republicans to prospective Republican success. They not only charged the Democratic party with responsibility for the Republican hard times, but they appropriated to themselves the great prosperity which followed the passage of the measure. But notwithstanding the overwhelming defeat of the Democratic party, the prosperity which came from the adoption of its policy of tariff reform will continue right along and increase in extent from week to week and month to month until all men will find employment at good wages, and all the business interests of the country are in a healthy condition and placed on a permanent and enduring foundation.

Before the next presidential election occurs the bad condition brought about by Democratic legislation will be so satisfactory that the country will reverse the verdict of last Tuesday and elect a Democratic president and a Congress Democratic in both branches. Democrats should not feel discouraged by this defeat. Their tariff law can not be repealed during this administration, and time will vindicate its wisdom and the country will never consent to its abrogation by modification except in the direction of greater reforms.

WILLIAM M. SPRINGER.

NEBRASKA.

Holcomb, Fusionist, Will Have About 8,000 Plurality.

OMAHA, Neb. 8.—The Republican state central committee concedes Holcomb's fusionist, election for governor by 3,000 plurality. Forty-two counties show Governor, Major, Republican, 69,338; Holcomb, fusionist, 62,338. There are 46 counties to hear from and the fusion candidate will in all probability have a plurality of from 2,000 to 3,000. Many of these counties are so isolated that if the result on the head of the ticket is much closer, the result can not be determined for several days. On the balance of the state Republican ticket the whole goes Republican.

The returns of the legislature are quite incomplete, but there is little doubt that the Republicans will control it, the vote on joint ballot standing: Republicans, 69; fusion, 64. It is believed the next United States senator will be Hon. John M. Thurston or Governor Crook.

CALIFORNIA.

Budd, Democratic Candidate for Governor, Is Elected.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The chairman of the Democratic and Republican state committees have been receiving advices from the county committees throughout the state. Chairman Gould of the Democratic committee stated that the election of Budd for governor was assured. He will get a plurality of between 7,000 and 8,000 in San Francisco. He also claimed the election of McGuire for congress from the Fourth district and of Angier for surveyor-general.

D. N. Burns, secretary of the Republican state committee will not concede that Budd has been elected.

Returns from senatorial and assembly districts in California indicate the election of fourteen Republican senators and forty-eight assemblymen. This, with the eight Republican hold-over senators, would give the Republicans ten majority on joint ballot.

COLORADO RETURNS.

Republicans Have Carried the State by 20,000 Majority.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 7.—Returns are very complete. They place McIntyre's majority at 20,040; Shafroth's, 14,480; Bowen, whom the Republicans admitted would be defeated, has 1,794 majority. There will be a Republican majority of seventeen on joint ballot in the state legislature, insuring the return of Senator E. O. Walcott.

In an interview Governor Waite said regarding the woman vote: "As to the woman vote, they were all against us. But the women in the mining regions, but in those camps women are very scarce. Their influence was principally in the cities which were so unalterably opposed to me. I believe that is why their vote went so largely against the Populists. The women must be educated up to think for themselves and not be controlled by the money power, as are the men."

STEVENS ON TALKS.

The Vice President's View of the Awful Landslide.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 8.—Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, vice president, says:

"My opinion can be briefly stated. The result is due in part to the financial depression which came upon the country soon after the inauguration of Mr. Cleveland. While the Democrats were in no way responsible for this, they were made the scape goats. It was also in part due to the delay of congress in passing the tariff bill. Had the bill become a law ninety days earlier than it did, it is probable that the business conditions of the country would have been adjusted themselves that the political result would have been different."

DOWN IN OKLAHOMA.

Flynn Elected to Congress by a Plurality of About 3,000.

NEWKIRK, Ok., Nov. 8.—The official vote in this county gives Flynn, Republican, for congress 1,440; Wisby,

Democrat, 768; Beaumont, Populist, 820. Flynn's election in the territory is conceded by 3,000 plurality.

The next legislature of Oklahoma, according to official returns, will be composed as follows: House of representatives, 11 Democrats, 5 Populists, 10 Republicans; Council, 6 Democrats, 2 Populists, 5 Republicans.

OHIO'S BIG PLURALITY.

It Reaches 150,000—Claim a Solid Congressional Delegation.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Returns indicate that the Republican plurality for secretary of state will exceed 150,000. The present Ohio delegation in congress consists of eleven Democrats and ten Republicans. The newly elected delegation consists of nineteen Republicans and two Democrats. The Republicans do not concede the election of Sorg in the Third and Layton in the Fourth districts, their pluralities being less than 100.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Republicans Get All the Congressmen and the Legislature.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 8.—With the legislature having sixteen Republican majority on joint ballot the election of Stephen B. Elkins to succeed J. N. Camden as United States senator is generally conceded. Elkins managed the campaign against Wilson as well as the legislative canvass. Republicans are elected in all four of the congressional districts.

Kansas City Election Frauds.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.—A rousing citizens' meeting, irrespective of party, was held last night and decided to immediately raise a big fund to investigate the election frauds in this city on election day. SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 8.—About 90 per cent of the returns from the territory are received and give Cannon, Republican, for delegate to congress a majority of 3,133. The delegates to the constitutional convention will stand sixty-six Republicans to forty-one Democrats.

On the Pacific Slope.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 8.—Returns from over one-half the state of Washington show that the Republican plurality will be more than 15,000. The legislature is Republican in both branches and on joint ballot by at least 25. Both Republican congressmen were elected.

Idaho Republican Victories.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Nov. 8.—The entire Republican state ticket is elected by 2,000 plurality or more. Legislature returns indicate that the legislature will be Republican. The new Mormon vote seems to have gone heavily Republican.

Very Close in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 8.—The state judicial ticket is so close that it will require the official vote to decide. The legislature is in doubt. Democrats hope for it, but make no claims. Populist and Republican leaders are very confident.

Morton's Plurality 153,346.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The total corrected vote for governor in New York state, Sullivan county out, stands as follows: Hill, 514,073; Morton, 657,479; Wheeler, 27,106; total, 1,107,658; Morton's plurality, 153,346; Morton's majority, 126,238.

Minnesota's Delegation Solid.

DOWN IN THE WRECK.

Bland, Hatch and Clark are All Probably Defeated.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 8.—From the latest official returns received from thirty-five counties in Missouri, Republican gains of 10,000 are shown, and the election of their entire state ticket by a plurality of at least 10,000 is assured. The successful candidates are: Walcott M. Robinson, judge of the supreme court; John R. Kirk, state superintendent of public schools, and Joseph Flory railroad and warehouse commissioner.

The lower house of the state legislature is Republican, but the Democrats, who have a majority in the senate, will be able to carry things on a joint ballot. Nothing definite can be learned, however, as to what their majority is until complete official returns have been received.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 8.—As nearly as can be ascertained the Democrats have lost the Fourth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, First, Third, Sixth, Eighth and Eleventh congressional districts. The Tenth is always Republican. The defeated Democrats are W. C. Ellison, C. H. Morgan, J. D. Fox, W. H. Hatch (anti-option), A. M. Dockery, D. A. DeArmond, R. P. Bland, (Silver) Dick, and Frederick Espensted, respectively. The successful Republicans are: George A. Crowther, C. G. Burton, John Rainey, C. N. Clark, H. G. Orton, R. E. Lewis, J. O. Official and unofficial returns received at Republican headquarters show that Tracy has been elected by over 700 majority.

Long a Long Way Ahead.

Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Connecticut Republican.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—All New England returns show great Republican gains. New Hampshire elects both Republican congressmen by increased pluralities. Busi-1 for governor gained 2,074 in seventy-four towns. This, if maintained, will give him a nearly 13,000 plurality. The legislature is largely Republican.

Greenhalge's plurality in Massachusetts is nearly 70,000. All of the Republican candidates for congress were elected except Fitzgerald in the Ninth. The legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican.

Rhode Island elects both Republican congressmen, each by over 3,000 majority.

A telegram from Hartford reports the Republican state ticket and four Republican congressmen chosen in Connecticut.
